Property Description

"There are so many things I love about this house I could probably write a whole essay about it! But the main things would probably have to be the garden and the bathroom. The low maintenance garden is a little sun trap and sheltered from the wind. Not overlooked and backing onto trees and a stream, it's lovely and peaceful. Having a footpath that takes you straight through to Porthkerry Country Park on the doorstep is an added bonus! The bathroom is a little piece of heaven. An evening soak in the roll top bath, watching the sunset through the trees - R and R at its finest, in the comfort of my own home!"
