Property Description

Charming former cow shed conversion set in 13 acres of land in the heart of the Teifi valley, West Wales.

Main Particulars

Botham Williams is thrilled to present this character-filled, 4-bed, 2-bath former cow shed conversion set in 13.42 acres of land in the heart of the Teifi Valley, near Pencader, West Wales. Beautifully renovated between 2005-2007 by the current owners, the property boasts spacious living accommodation with Indian sandstone flooring and log burner, a farmhouse style oak kitchen, a large, contemporary bathroom, four well-proportioned bedrooms, the principal bedroom benefitting from an en-suite, with original character throughout the property, including wood and tile flooring, vaulted ceilings, solid stone walls and a slate tile roof.

The accompanying land comprises of native woodland hosting approximately 6,000 trees, pastureland, a patio area and spacious garden with views spanning the Teifi Valley. The plot also has potential planning for a glamping enterprise.

The idyllic market town of Llandysul is a mere 3 miles from the property, which provides a good range of local amenities. The property sits just 12 miles north from the County Town and shopping centre of Carmarthen, providing rail and motorway network connections, along with West Wales General Hospital.

The property benefits from private water, mains electricity, private drainage, oil fired central heating and biomass, double glazing and a cosy log burner for those wintery nights in. There are solar panels running the domestic water supply at the property and the telephone and broadband is supplied via BT.
